MAINE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION,
Investigation of Total Element Long-Run
Incremental Cost (TELRIC) Studies and
Pricing of Unbundled Network Elements

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

March 20, 2002

WELCH, Chairman; NUGENT and DIAMOND, Commissioners

On February 12, 2002, and March 8, 2002, we issued Orders in this proceeding adopting TELRIC rates. Attached to both Orders were spreadsheets listing the various rates that were set. As explained in the March 8, 2002 Order, after issuing the February 12th Order, we found it necessary to revise several of the rates adopted in the February 12th Order due to errors in their calculation. We also adopted a fourth set of rates on March 8th relating to interconnection services. We stated in our March 8th Order that the rates contained in Attachment B to that Order were the final rates.

On March 14, 2002, Verizon filed a letter with the Commission (and copied to the service list) citing several calculation errors in the rates attached to the March 8th Order. On March 18, 2002, the Hearing Examiner issued a procedural order stating that we had reviewed Verizon's letter and found we had made errors in the calculation of the rates. In addition, the Hearing Examiner requested that parties notify the Commission by 12:00 p.m., March 20, 2002, if there were additional calculation errors. We did not receive any notice of errors.

Thus, attached to this Supplemental Order are revised rate sheets.

Dated at Augusta, Maine, this 20th day of March, 2002.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS TO REVIEW OR APPEAL

5 M.R.S.A. § 9061 requires the Public Utilities Commission to give each party to an adjudicatory proceeding written notice of the party's rights to review or appeal of its decision made at the conclusion of the adjudicatory proceeding. The methods of review or appeal of PUC decisions at the conclusion of an adjudicatory proceeding are as follows:

1. Reconsideration of the Commission's Order may be requested under Section 1004 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (65-407 C.M.R.110) within 20 days of the date of the Order by filing a petition with the Commission stating the grounds upon which reconsideration is sought.
2. Appeal of a final decision of the Commission may be taken to the Law Court by filing, within 30 days of the date of the Order, a Notice of Appeal with the Administrative Director of the Commission, pursuant to 35-A M.R.S.A. § 1320(1)-(4) and the Maine Rules of Appellate Procedure.
3. Additional court review of constitutional issues or issues involving the justness or reasonableness of rates may be had by the filing of an appeal with the Law Court, pursuant to 35-A M.R.S.A. § 1320(5).

Note: The attachment of this Notice to a document does not indicate the Commission's view that the particular document may be subject to review or appeal. Similarly, the failure of the Commission to attach a copy of this Notice to a document does not indicate the Commission's view that the document is not subject to review or appeal.
